BITUMINOUS COAL STRIKE NOW OVER

The Differences Are Settled by Miners and Operators.

CONFERENCE IS SUCCESSFUL

The Sixty and Sixty-Nine Cent Basis Is Accepted by the Miners.

MINERS WILL WORK ON MONDAY

An Amicable Adjustment of One of the Most Disastrous of Strikes Is Hailed with Pleasure by Workingmen Throughout the Country Who Have Been Forced Into Idleness by the Bituminous Strike--Concessions Made at the Meeting of Operators and Miners at Columbus--It Is Agreed That Work Shall Be Resumed on Monday Next--Notes of the Strike Throughout the Country.

THE CONFERENCE OF OPERATORS AND MINERS REACHED AN AGREEMENT AT 6 O'CLOCK THIS EVENING. The 60 and 69 cent basis is accepted by the miners, and the miners will go to work tomorrow. It is agreed that they shall go to work not later than next Monday. The miners secured just half the advance they asked for.

The report of the scale committee was adopted unanimously by the conference of the miners and operators at 10 o'clock tonight, and the conference adjourned sine die. It was noted when the signatures were read that they had substituted for W. H. Murray and A. A. Adams, the men who stood out against compromise, John Fahy and Secretary P. A. McElroy.

The following is the full agreement reached:

Resolved, That we agree that the rates for mining 3,000 pounds lump coal shall be as follows: Pittsburg, this vein 69 cents; thick vein, 56 cents; Hocking, 69 cents; Indiana bituminous, 69 cents; Indiana black, 70 cents; Superior, min. summer, 62 1/2 cents; winter, 70 cents; Wilmington, summer, 77 1/2 cents; winter, 83 cents; La Salle, Ill., and Spring Valley, summer, 72 1/2 cents; winter, 80 cents. Other sections in Northern Illinois field at prices relative to the above.

Coal Pittsburg district going east to tidewater shall pay the same mining prices as that paid by the Penn. Coal and Coke and Westmoreland Coal company. This scale of prices shall be in effect and bind both parties thereto beginning June 18, 1894, and continuing until the first day of May, 1895, subject to the following provisions: Provided that the above named scale of price for the Pittsburg district shall be generally recognized and observed. It is further provided that operators and miners shall co-operate in their efforts to secure a general observance of said prices named for said district and if during the period covered by this agreement a general recognition of the prices herein named for said district cannot be secured, either party to this agreement may call a meeting of the joint board of arbitration to meet at such time and place as these having authority may elect, and said joint board may call such meeting and determine, if able, whether the agreement has been sufficiently respected and complied with to warrant its continuance to the date named herein. If the board is unable to agree, the members thereof shall select a disinterested person whose decision shall be final. If it shall be found and decided by process above provided that it is being substantially respected, it shall remain in force and bind both parties thereto for the period stipulated herein, and it found and decided by same process not to be so generally observed as to warrant its continuance, it shall be abrogated and both parties release to be absolved from contract obligations herein set forth. Whenever miners desire they shall be permitted to elect and place on the table as check weights, one of the above scale semi-monthly. All balances due on pay day shall be paid in cash. An interstate board of arbitration and conciliation, consisting of four operators and four miners, shall consider and determine upon any inequality complained of as between the different fields named in the above schedule of prices.

John McBride said tonight that while the settlement was not all that he could wish, it was the best that the miners could hope for under the circumstances. They were still the victors of the contest. "The miners were starving, industries were paralyzed and thousands of fellow workmen were being daily thrown out of employment by reason of the coal famine while the interference with property rights which wherever done was blamed on the miners, was losing public sympathy for us." He thought the settlement would be at once ratified all over the district.

Secretary Brooks, according to instructions of the conference, filed a copy of the agreement with Governor McKinley as its custodian. Governor McKinley said tonight he was very glad to hear of the settlement. It was, in his opinion, the only way to promptly and permanently end the troubles in this and other states.

COLUMBUS, O., June 11. The conference of operators and miners reached an agreement at 6 o'clock this evening. UNGALLANT NEW JERSEY.

Female Suffrage Declared by Highest Courts to Be Illegal.

TRENTON, N. J., June 11. The supreme court through Chief Justice Beasley today decided that women had no right to vote in New Jersey and that wherever they exercised the right of suffrage it was an illegal assumption of power.

The decision comes in connection with a proceeding to oust from office the road overseer of Englewood township, Bergen county. The contestant claims that women were allowed to vote at the election under a recent law providing that such as owned property could vote for certain township officials.

The supreme court says that the right to vote can be conferred by the constitution alone, and under the constitution the privilege is confined to male citizens only.

What effect this decision may have on the school elections at which men and women of New Jersey have been voting for some years cannot be foretold. It opens the door, however, to innumerable contests by defeated candidates or other interested parties should they care to set up the charge of illegal voting by women.

THE JENKINS APPEAL.

Arguments in a Celebrated Case Are Heard in Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 10. The appeal of Grand Chief Arthur of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and leaders of the other railway labor organizations against the new celebrated order of Judge Jenkins, in the Northern Pacific case denying to the organizations concerned the right to strike and enjoining them from any concerted action to that end, was the special order in the United States court of appeals this morning.

Justice Harlan presided, and with him sat Judges Woods, of Indiana, and Dunn, of Wisconsin. Argument by counsel for the corporation consumed the time to this recess.

CONDENSED STATE TOPICS.

The miners in the Lykens region have plenty of work and are making over time by reason of the lack of orders.

Justus Klemmer, aged 62 of Reading, was fatally murdered by William Webber, his son-in-law, who attempted to take the life of his wife and her uncle. He surrendered himself an hour after the shooting.

Owen E. Barlow, aged 43 years, master of the Reading company, at Pottsville, was struck by an engine today and so badly injured that he died a few hours later. He was one of the best known dispatchers on the main line division.

CAPTIVE WORKMEN RESCUED.

UNIONTOWNS, Pa., June 11.—At noon today a posse of deputy sheriffs found the captive workmen in a camp of the strikers near Kyle and effected their release without a conflict. The men bore evidence of rough treatment, but were not seriously injured. They were brought to Uniontown and made information against the strikers who Ten Paragraphs of Tariff Bill Considered Without Republican Objection.

SENATOR QUAY RISES TO EXPLAIN

Denies That He Is Interested in Traction Schemes--A Little Joke Seriously Considered by the Presiding Officer--Jute Is Not Given an Equal Showing with King Cotton--Inaugural Literature to Be Circulated.

WASHINGTON, June 11. The progress made by the senate today in the consideration of the tariff bill was not only exceptionally good, but was "amazing" to those senators who had had no idea of what was going to happen. Schedule II, the spirits and wines schedule, not through in less than three hours, with very little discussion and with no serious friction. Then came the cotton schedule, which has been looked forward to as the one around which the fight would rage longest, and forecast, but it was the unexpected that happened. Paragraph after paragraph was put through without question and without discussion, and it was not until after the last paragraph in the schedule was reached and disposed of, that the rapidity of the pace gave a chance to Mr. Dolph (Or.) to catch his breath and express his amazement at this legislative rapid transit. Ten pages of the bill, he said, had been rushed through in thirty minutes, without a single New England senator opening his mouth in opposition. This silence, he thought, was significant.

THE MYSTERY WHICH PUZZLED THE SENATORS FROM GEORGIA WAS DISAPPEARED WHEN MR. ALDRICH, RHODE ISLAND, CONFESSED THAT THE SCHEDULE HAD BEEN MOST SCIENTIFICALLY FRAMED, AND THAT THE FINANCE COMMITTEE DESERVED THE THANKS OF THE COTTON MANUFACTURERS FOR HAVING CONSENTED TO AN ARRANGEMENT WHICH, WHILE THE DUTIES WERE NOT HIGH ENOUGH, WAS PERFECTLY SATISFACTORY. The jute section, which was next in order, did not stir much smooth sailing as the cotton section had, which fact provoked the sarcastic remark of Mr. Hale, Maine, that the finance committee had not paid so much attention to the pacification of the manufacturers of burlaps as to that of the manufacturers of cotton.

MR. QUAY'S LONG ADDRESS.

There were some amusing and interesting passages in a discussion over the tariff and tariff amendments, but the committee amendment was carried without its opponents being given enough to second a call for the yeas and nays. Then the jute section was finished and read a newspaper article for tomorrow, when Mr. Quay is to re-open his portfolio and deliver an other installment of the speech begun by him on April 16, and of which numerous parts have already been delivered.

Mr. Quay, rising to a question of personal privilege, sent to the clerk's desk and had read a newspaper article connecting his name with a syndicate of Philadelphia capitalists said to be trying to obtain possession of street railroads in Washington. He asserted that the only connection he had with the matter was that he had introduced Mr. Dolph, of Rhode Island, to the chief of the syndicate, to Senators McMillan and Faulkner, of the District of Columbia committee, and had asked some friends in the other house to request some of the Pennsylvania members to be present today in order to constitute a quorum. That was the extent of his knowledge of or connection with the matter. He would not have mentioned it at all but for the fact that Senator Chandler was understood to be the authority for the article.

Mr. Chandler, N. H., said that he had heard of a syndicate for the formation of a traction company to obtain control of the street railways in Washington. He had never until this moment heard Mr. Dolph's name connected with any such project, and he certainly had made no remark attributing any improper motive to the senator from Pennsylvania, and he had no reason to doubt the exact truth of Mr. Quay's statement.

JOKES UNAPPRECIATED.

Mr. Quay suggested facetiously that the subject might as well be referred to the select committee investigating the connection of the sugar trust with the tariff bill, and the vice president, treating the suggestion seriously, asked whether there was any objection, and as there was none, he declared that the suggestion was agreed to, and that the matter was referred to the select committee.

Several of the members of the house were in an ill humor today, so that requests for consideration of private bills by unanimous consent, to which the first half of the sessions is usually devoted, were met by demands for the usual order, and no bills were passed.

A resolution introduced by Mr. Bailey (Denn, Tex.) was reported favorably and agreed to, providing for the printing of 6,000 copies of a compilation of the messages, proclamations and inaugural addresses of the presidents of the United States from 1789 to 1894 inclusive. The rest of the day was devoted to the consideration of bills relating to the interests of the District of Columbia.

THE BEAR IS SAFE.

Reports of the Wrecking of the Revenue Steamer Were Unfounded.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., June 11. The steamer City of Tokyo has arrived from Alaska. The rumor from San Francisco that the revenue cutter Bear was wrecked near Sitka is false. The Bear called at Sitka and safely departed for the Arctic coast a month ago.

Sealers along the Alaska coast north of Prince William Island have reported to the government authorities that there was imminent danger of an In-

The war is still on.

THE ATHLETE IS REVENGED FROM A WATERY GRAVE.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 11. While swimming in the Thorongate today, Walter Elgeton, the "Kantucky Rosebud," who is training here for his coming fight with Dixon in Boston, became exhausted while nearly 300 feet from shore and would have perished had it not been for the efforts of Trainer McElde.

The trainer went to his rescue and after a hard struggle succeeded in bringing him to shore, where he was resuscitated.

THEY WALKED ON ASPHALT.

Coxey and Browne Visit the Capitol and Attract Little Attention.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Coxey and Browne came to the Capitol today, carrying no prohibited banners, accompanied by a large number of men, some of whom were walking on the grass in front of the building, and spent some time in the senate gallery.

Browne did not wear his theatrical leather coat and consequently the two commonweathers attracted little attention.

OXFORD WILL MEET YALE.

A Letter Is Received by the Athletic Association Naming the Conditions of the Contests.

LONDON, June 11.—The Oxford Athletic club has sent under this date a long letter to the Yale Athletic association concerning the condition of Yale-Harvard games. The letter contains a number of proposals, and all difficulties of forming the Oxford team have been removed and Oxford is fully prepared to accept Yale's challenge. The first condition of this acceptance is that there will be nine events, namely: Flat race of a mile, a half mile, a quarter mile and 100 yards, a hurdle race of 130 yards with 10 flights, a broad and high jump, and weight putting and hammer throwing. The second condition is that there shall be no more than two contestants from each university in any one event. The other conditions are: That all contests shall be conducted in accordance with the rules governing the annual contests between Oxford and Cambridge, excepting only the weight putting and hammer throwing in which the rules observed between Oxford and Cambridge and Harvard and Yale respectively may be followed, and that the referee's decision be final and not appeal to be taken; that the contestants be chosen solely from the Englishmen and Americans sharing or qualified to share respectively in the foregoing contests in 1894; that Yale and Oxford mutually certify that none of the competitors ever shared in any competition with or against professional athletes within the definition and laws of the Amateur Athletic Association of England that both clubs accept the queen's club's financial proposals, namely, that the Yale and Oxford and queen's clubs divide equally the net profits or losses of the games.

OUR WHEAT IS SHRINKING.

Only a Few Million Bushels Left for Millers and Speculators.

DULUTH, Minn., June 11.—It is now considered that there are good grounds for belief that by the first part of August there will not be wheat enough at the head of the lakes to supply the mills. The amount now in the present time is scarcely 7,000,000 bushels. The amount now left in farmers' hands is not estimated at enough to be worthy of mention. For the past three weeks millers have been drawing largely upon the elevators for their supplies, the receipts by rail being far short of the amount required for their consumption.

Of 7,000,000 bushels now in store the mills will use at their present rate of consumption over 3,000,000 bushels and as the shipments approximate 2,000,000 bushels per month the supply is more than likely to be exhausted before the new crop begins to move.

THE LION TAMER'S INJURY.

Mrs. Beatrice, Who Kissed the Hungry Brutus, Will Not Die.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Mrs. Beatrice, the female lion tamer, who was badly bitten in the face by the lion Brutus in the Old London Zoo on the Pier, Coney Island, will probably recover, but will be laid up for several days.

The lion's teeth broke the young woman's jaw and severely lacerated her tongue. Mrs. Beatrice was about to conclude her performance by kissing the lion when the brute attacked her. She is being attended by Drs. Hill and Ward.

KNIGHTS AND THE GRANGERS

The Two Great Organizations to Be Cemented in Bonds of Friendship.

PITTSBURG JOINT CONFERENCE

The Heads of the Knights of Labor and American Federation of Labor and the Farmers' Alliance Hold Convention--A Movement in the Interest of Friendlier Relations Between the Members of the Great Orders--Secret Sessions Held.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 11. The joint conference committee between the heads of the Knights of Labor and American Federation of Labor, which is confidently expected will cement the two great labor organizations with bonds of lasting friendship and include all other great labor organizations, such as the various railway organizations, the Farmers' Alliance and other bodies not in strict accord with the knights and federations, began at 10 o'clock this morning.

When the conference was called to order this morning by Master Workman Sverdrup, there were present the following named organizations of labor:

Knights of Labor--J. R. Sverdrup, John W. Hayes and W. J. Haskin.
American Federation of Labor--Samuel J. Gompers, P. J. McGuire and Frank Foster.
Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers--A. R. Young and Messrs. Mills and Maylor.
Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen--F. H. Sargent and Frank W. Arnold, Torrey, and Charles W. Blair, Parsons, Ken.
Brotherhood of Bookbinders, Federation of Railway Trainmen--S. E. Wilkinson.
Order of Railway Conductors--E. E. Clark.
Farmer's Alliance--A. E. Denn.
T. B. McGuire, of the general executive board of the knights, is present, but does not formally represent that organization.

PRESIDENT GOMPERS' STATEMENT.

President Gompers said, when asked concerning the conference: "It is early the day to give out anything beyond the general statement that this meeting has been arranged in the interests of harmony between the Federation of Labor, the Knights of Labor and other great independent organizations."

The movement for closer and friendlier relations, even complete amalgamation, dates back as far as 1869, and work has progressed along these lines ever since, of course, slowly but ever with the desirable end in view, the greatest good to the greatest number of individuals, represented by organized labor, the whole movement being consecrated to the best interests of the latter, whatever organization aligned.

The conference opened in secret session until nearly 5 p. m., when a recess was taken until 5 p. m. The details of the conference are not given out, but it is learned from a reliable source that the speakers do not favor amalgamation of the different trades and labor organizations. They also cate, however, harmonious and concerted action in all matters concerning their mutual benefit and for the purpose of protection of labor against capital. It is believed that the conference will agree that all labor organizations shall bind themselves to an agreement as outlined above.

CUT HER THROAT.

Ellen Vahey Takes Her Life with a Butcher Knife.

PITTSBURG, June 11.—Ellen Vahey, a maiden woman aged 50 years, of 107 Lombard street, committed suicide at her home at 10:30 o'clock this morning. The suicide had carefully planned the manner in which she desired to end her life by locking the door and securing the windows. The building in which the deed was committed is occupied by Miss Vahey and her family. It was the strange noise as if some one in mortal agony in Miss Vahey's room that caused the family to investigate. A ladder was then secured, placed against one of the second story windows and entrance was thus gained.

DOWNED DUNCAN ROSS.

The Great Champion Placed on His Back by an Unknown.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Ernest Roebor and Duncan Ross wrestled tonight for the championship of America at the Academy of Music this city.

Roebor won the first fall, catch-as-catch-can, in 10 minutes; the second, Graco-Roman in 7 1/2, and the third, catch-as-catch-can, in 4 minutes.

WILLIE'S CHAIR IS VACANT.

Brooklynage No Longer a Member of Chicago Union League.

CHICAGO, June 11.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Union League club of this city held today final action was taken in the case of Congressman Brooklynage's honorary membership in that organization.

A month ago the members voted to strike his name off the roll, and as no defense has been entered by the colonel the action of the directorate has been put into effect.

SHE MARRIED A NEGRO.

Saratoga Hotel Porter a Good Enough Husband for Jennie Mayo.

BIRMINGHAM, Vt., June 11.—People here are excited over the marriage of Miss Jennie Mayo, a society belle of Middlesex, to Thomas Strong of Castleton, Vt., a negro hotel porter. It has just leaked out that they were secretly married by the pastor of the African METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH ON WEDNESDAY LAST.

Last summer Miss Mayo and her mother went to Saratoga and registered in Congress Hall. Miss Mayo, who is 24 years old, saw Strong and immediately became infatuated with him. Strong is a porter in Bermuda during the winter and returns to Saratoga every summer. He is said to be worth several thousand dollars.

BOSTON FEELS THE BESOM.

Parkhursts Taking Hold There--The Police Forced to Act.

BOSTON, June 11.—A scare, which is now reaching the point of a stampede, has been caused among the keepers of respectable houses, gamblers and other professional evil doers about the city by the crusade against them which has been inaugurated by the Watch and Ward society and the police.

Captain Foster, of Precinct 5, has issued orders to keepers of all notorious resorts in his district to move out at once, and similar orders will be issued by other captains.

Resorts in Ashland place, Dover street, Lowering place and other disreputable sections are today being vacated. Agent Chase, of the Watch and Ward society, states that the crusade will be continued until every resort in Boston is closed if it is possible to do it.

DEATH OF MULEY HASSAN.

Sultan of Morocco Suddenly Passes Away--Thought to Have Been Murdered.

TANGIER, June 11.—News received here from the interior confirms the report of the death of Sultan Muley Hassan. The representatives of the foreign governments are in consultation upon the subject.

It is rumored that the Sultan's son, Muley Abdul Aziz, has been proclaimed sultan of Morocco.

The sultan was born in 1821 and succeeded to the throne on September 23, 1873.

Latest advices from Morocco say that trouble is expected throughout Morocco and especially around Meilla and Ceuta.

The sultan died suddenly on June 7 at Tadia, between Morocco and Casa Blanca. Measures have been taken here to prevent anticipated disorder. Sensational rumors are in circulation as to the cause of the sultan's death, and the populace is becoming excited.

Muley Hassan was the eldest son of Sultan Sidi Mahomed. He ascended the throne on his father's death in 1873, being known as "Emirul Mumenin," or "Prince of True Believers." He was the fourth of the dynasty of the Alides founded by Muley Achmet, and the thirty-fifth lineal descendant of Ali, son-in-law of the Prophet.

The sultan of Morocco is an absolute despot, unrestricted by any laws, civil or religious. He is the chief of the state, as well as head of the religion. He is a spiritual ruler, and his authority alone, his authority not being limited, as in Turkey and other Mohammedan countries.

Muley Hassan himself has had a rather uneventful career. The most notable incidents were his maltreatment of the Jews, which was finally ended by a formal declaration of tolerance, and the difficulty with Spain last year, growing out of the attack on the Spanish fortress at Meilla.

MADRID, June 11.—The latest dispatches from Morocco say that Muley Hassan died of malignant fever. His successor, Muley Abdul, is 10 years old. He is the son of the old sultan's favorite wife, a Canadian woman. The old sultan's famous one-eyed son, the first born of his numerous children, is already regarded as a pretender, and it is feared that he will take advantage of the first opportunity to incite the people to rise in his behalf.

Of 7,000,000 bushels now in store the mills will use at their present rate of consumption over 3,000,000 bushels and as the shipments approximate 2,000,000 bushels per month the supply is more than likely to be exhausted before the new crop begins to move.

THE LION TAMER'S INJURY.

Mrs. Beatrice, Who Kissed the Hungry Brutus, Will Not Die.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Mrs. Beatrice, the female lion tamer, who was badly bitten in the face by the lion Brutus in the Old London Zoo on the Pier, Coney Island, will probably recover, but will be laid up for several days.

The lion's teeth broke the young woman's jaw and severely lacerated her tongue. Mrs. Beatrice was about to conclude her performance by kissing the lion when the brute attacked her. She is being attended by Drs. Hill and Ward.

FLASHED FROM THE WIRES.

The Master Carbuilders' association, the president of which is E. W. Grieve, of the Baltimore and Ohio road, will begin its twenty-second annual convention at Saratoga today.

The professional politicians and the "agents" from the rural "backstreets" oppose the idea of separating local from state and national elections, as proposed in the constitution convention.

Melvin Phelps of Watertown, William Draper of Wilna, and Louis Draper and Henry Van Tassel, of Natural Bridge, members of the Watertown gang of burglars, are on trial at Cortright. The gang stole thousands of dollars worth of goods from farmers.

A fight is raging over the body of the late Senator Zebulon B. Vance. The family deposited the remains in the family vault in the face by the T. Z. on the plot. The widow who was a second wife and a Catholic had the body exhumed and reburied in consecrated ground. Then the son procured the re-removal of the body to its original place of burial. The war is still on.

THEY WALKED ON ASPHALT.

Coxey and Browne Visit the Capitol and Attract Little Attention.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Coxey and Browne came to the Capitol today, carrying no prohibited banners, accompanied by a large number of men, some of whom were walking on the grass in front of the building, and spent some time in the senate gallery.

Browne did not wear his theatrical leather coat and consequently the two commonweathers attracted little attention.
